BRITISH CALL OFF PEACE PARLEY

ALLAN O. MARTIN IS NEW GLENDALE CHIEF OF POLICE

GLENDALE BUILDING PERMITS GREATLY EXCEED 1920 RECORD

BY EARL C. REEVES
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The door to Irish peace was nearly closed today. The action of Premier Lloyd George in calling off the proposed peace conference, while not ending negotiations between Eamonn de Valera and himself, has brought a possible renewal of Irish hostilities closer than at any time since the peace discussions started.

The forecast was made by an authoritative source today that the following Irish events might be expected:

1.—De Valera will call a secret executive session of Dail Eireann.

2.—Dail Eireann will order an immediate plebescite.

3.—The voters, thanks to the powerful and perfectly organized political machine of the Sinn Fein, will return an overwhelming ratification of de Valera's position that Ireland must be treated as a sovereign state.

Sinn Fein Cabinet Meets With De Valera

By DANIEL O'CONNELL
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

DUBLIN, Sept. 16.—Eamonn de Valera conferred with the Sinn Fein cabinet here today in an effort to find a way out of the difficulties into which the Irish peace negotiations have fallen.

News that Premier Lloyd George had called off the proposed peace conference at Inverness because the Sinn Fein insisted upon entering the parley on the basis of Irish independence caused great excitement here.

Responsible Sinn Fein leaders said they believed that despite the deadlock there would be a further exchange of notes.

Negotiations were not ended by the premier and the Sinn Feiners look for a further interchange of communications before it is determined whether the Irish armistice shall be broken off.

The next move is up to the Sinn Fein. Leaders of Dail Eireann and the Sinn Fein cabinet were in conference at Dublin today and belief existed in official circles that the Irish would lose no time in replying to the communication which the Premier sent to Dublin late yesterday.

British officials, while admitting a new crisis has developed in the Irish situation, expressed the hope that Irish moderates would prevent the breaking of the Irish armistice and would force a renewal of the peace negotiations upon a new basis.

In official circles the opinion was advanced that the Premier, by cancelling the proposed peace conference, "had cleared the air."

A cabinet council will be held at Inverness. The fact that the Premier decided that another meeting of the cabinet was necessary in Scotland emphasized the importance of the latest developments.

The press, while admitting the gravity of the situation, has not lost hope of a solution.

The first hint that the Sinn Fein will approach Premier Lloyd George for a renewal of the peace negotiations was contained in a semi-official statement which was intended as a reply to the Premier's announcement of yesterday.

"The British are not expected to recognize the Irish Government in advance of the conference," said the statement. "It is proposed that both sides should enter the conference uncommitted."

Allan O. Martin was appoinuted chief of police of Glendale yesterday by City Manager Reeves. The council at the regular meeting last night, approved the appointment.

Mr. Martin was appointed to take the place of former Chief Lampert, who tendered his resignation. Former Chief Lampert's resignation was read last night to the city council and accepted. Before accepting his resignation each councilman made a few remarks commending Mr. Lampert for his work while chief of the police force.

At the time that the appointment of the police chief was announced, other appointments of department heads were announced and approved by the council. In all cases the official holding the position at present was reappointed.

Councilman Lapham was instrumental in the proposed trip to Folsom prison by the city council to inspect the activated sludge system of sewerage disposal that was voted at last week's meeting of the council, being cancelled, and a resolution being introduced and carried rescinding the former action of the council calling for the trip. A new motion was made and carried that the mayor appiont a committee consisting of Councilman Kimlin and City Engineer C. L. Hill to make the trip and inspect the system.

Tomich Protests

A communication from Peter S. Tomich asked that he be released from his contract to install the sewers in municipal improvement district No. 3. The communication stated that through an error in reading the specifications the bid for the work was figured in such a manner that the contractor will lose about $3000. After some discussion it was ordered that Mr. Tomich will have to fulfill his contract as per agreement.

All-Year Club

A representative of the chamber of commerce appeared before the council and after explaining the purpose of the All-Year Club and outlining the work already done by this organization and work that is contemplated for the future, asked the council to contribute from the advertising fund of the city $500 for the purpose of carrying on the work of advertising Southern California as a summer, as well as winter, playground. Councilman Lapham said that according to the city charter this sum could not be appropriated for this purpose. He further stated that while the city did have an advertising fund set aside it was the intention to use this fund to advertise Glendale.

Secretary Rhoades of the chamber of commerce replied to Councilman Lapham by saying that in cooperating with the All-Year Club, the council would be spending the money for the purpose of advertising Glendale, as such a campaign as was being carried on by the club is a benefit to every section of Southern California.

He also stated that practically every town of the southland had already contributed money to the campaign and that in his mind it was up to the city of Glendale to do their part. After some discussion it was agreed that the matter should be referred to the committee of the whole for an investigation and report would be made next week.

Property Owners Want Alley

A petition from the property owners of Glendale avenue and Everett street, between Broadway and Wilson avenue, requested permission to use a portion of the alley between Glendale and Everett for the purpose of erecting a hotel. This petition was referred to the city engineer for checking and a report.

San Fernando Fair

Secretary Rhoades of the chamber of commerce introduced Fred Prince of San Fernando and a committee from the San Fernando Fair Association. Mr. Prince addressed the council telling of the work that had been done by the committee in preparing the fair, and asked that the people of Glendale give the committee and the

L. A. LIMITED DERAILED

BELLEPLAINE, Ia., Sept. 16.—Two men were killed and two others were seriously injured early today when the Los Angeles Limited, crack all-steel train on the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad, was partly derailed near here.

Fireman J. B. Johnston of Clinton, Ia., and an unidentified man, believed to have been a tramp who was beating his way, were killed. Engineer T. R. Lea, of Clinton, and a man believed to have been a "pal" of the unidentified man who was killed, were injured.

The wreck was caused by a track washout, due to heavy rains. The engine and two baggage cars left the rails. Passengers were jolted but none were injured.

The train, west bound, left Chicago at 8 o'clock last night and was due in Los Angeles Sunday.

ENTOMBED MINERS RESCUED

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 16.—Two miners entombed for 24 hours in the Coalbrook mine of the Hudson Coal Co., at Carlsondale, were rescued alive early today and only slightly injured.

Two more workers are still entombed behind a wall of rock and coal, and 200 rescuers, working in relays, have been unable to reach them so far. The four men were trapped yesterday.

MISS MARY LOGAN IS GUEST OF HONOR

Mrs. John Hobbs and Mrs. Andy Stephenson of South Central avenue entertained yesterday at a luncheon at the home of the former, in honor of Miss Mary Logan, who is soon to become the bride of Marshall Pearson.

The table was beautifully decorated with red dahlias, and tiny red nut cups served as favors. A very delicious luncheon was served. During the afternoon, Miss Logan was presented with a beautiful pair of woolen blankets, a gift from the guests.

Those who assisted in complimenting Miss Logan were Mrs. Guy Pearson, Mrs. John Logan, Mrs. O. W. Andersen, Mrs. William Justema, Mrs. F. R. Ripley, Mrs. D H Smith, Mrs. Charles Barker, Mrs. Hal Davenport, Mrs. Joe Webster, Mrs. Clyde Carmack, Mrs. Dwight Stephenson, Mrs. Noble Ripley, Mrs. Wayne Smith, Mrs. Ellen Kafus, Miss Lila Webster, Miss Helen Kafus, Miss Blanche Davenport, Miss Clara Pearson, and the joint hostesses, Mrs. John Hobbs and Mrs. Andy Stephenson.

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent in sewing.

FOIL BANK RAID

SPOKANE, Wn., Sept. 16.—In a pitched battle early today between Spokane police officers and six or seven yeggmen who had attempted to blow the safe of the Reardan, Wn., Bank, aPtrolman Tony Allison was wounded in the leg.

The bandits were driven away from the bank before they secured any loot. Four Spokane policemen stopped them on the Sunset Highway, three miles west of Spokane, chasing the yeggmen into the prairie and capturing their automobile.

Allison fell with the first volley when the bandits opened fire.

POKER GAME HELD UP

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 16.—Three masked bandits shortly before noon held up a poker game in a downtown hotel, shot and killed one of the players and seriously wounded the proprietor of the hotel. The bandits escaped with $300.

Malcolm G. Larkins and Mrs. Susie (Gibbs) White were married in Los Angeles last night and the news was conveyed to the parents and brother of the bride and groom today. The bride lived in Glendale as a young girl and is known to many residents of the former Tropico section.

The groom is a carpentier, working for contractor J. E. Peters. He and his new wife will live in a garage home, just completed, at 1014 Orange Grove avenue, until he finds time to build a residence.

Last year's record for building permits issued in Glendale during the entire year has been reached and passed by a wide margin. Permits issued up to noon today amounted to $10,575, bringing the total for the month up to $242,585. The total for the year is at present $3,147,779, and is considerably higher than the total for the whole of last year, with more than three months remaining. The total amount of permits issued last year was $3,137,264, almost ten thousand dollars short of the amount issued during the past eight months. This is indicative that Glendale is growing, will continue to grow and that people from all over the country are beginning to realize this fact and are coming here to make their future home.

The fact that Glendale building permits are ever increasing is also an indicator that real estate values are increasing and that now is the time to buy property in Glendale, "The fastest growing city in the United States," as property here will never be cheaper than it is today.

BRYAN MONUMENT TO BE RESTORED IS PLAN

(By International News Service)

POINT PLEASANT, W. Va., Sept. 16.—During one of the Presidential campaigns of William Jennings Bryan feeling ran so strong and excitement was so great that vandals kicked over and otherwise wrecked the monument over the graves of Mr. and Mrs. John Bryan, grandparents of the Commoner. A movement has just been launched here to replace by popular subscription the monument the vandals destroyed.

William J. Bryan arrived here recently to visit his ancestors' graves, located on the G. G. Arrington farm, three miles from the city. When he arrived at the graves he found the stones broken into small pieces. He was visibly affected by the scene and authorized R. P. Bell, of this city, to have a monument and markers erected. Mayor Dower addressed a letter to Mr. Bell asking him to get Mr. Bryan's permission to have the monument replaced by popular subscription. He said it would give the people a chance to remove the stigma attached to the destruction of the original stones and offer them an opportunity to show the high esteem in which Mr. Bryan is held here. John Bryan moved to Point Pleasant from Culpepper County, Virginia, in 1831 and died in 1833.

GLENDALE NIGHT SCHOOL REGISTRATION

Thursday evening marked the first registrations for the Glendale night school, of which A. L. Ferguson is principal. He reports over 100 enrollments, the big call being for mechanical arts, domestic science and commercial arts. The heaviest demand was for millinery and auto shop work.

Registration will continue tonight from 7 to 9 o'clock, and the faculty will then endeavor to formulate a program which can be announced tomorrow. The aim will, of course, be to meet the requirements of the greater number. If all cannot be accommodated, there will be a waiting list and additional classes will be organized as soon as possible.

TAMPICO OIL FIRE

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 16.—The great new well of the Mexican Gulf Oil Co., in the Tampico fields, is on fire and has been burning for 48 hours. The other companies are furnishing men and apparatus to prevent the fire from speading. The well had a epoted capacity of 1,000 barels every 24 hours.

C. of C. WORKERS' BANQUET

Everything is set for the banquet that will be held by the workers in the membership drive of the Chamber of Commerce, at the White Inn tonight.

At this session a report of all the applications for membership received since Tuesday will be made. The chairmen of each of the four committees are rounding up their various members, so that the attendance at tonight's affair may be as complete as possible.

It has been definitely decided that the Ladies' Aid of the First Methodist Church of Glendale will serve the banquet to new members and workers, at the close of this drive, which affair will be held in the Masonic Temple on Brand boulevard, on the evening of September 30.

At this event the dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock, and the latter part of the evening will be filled with a musical program, interspersed by various addresses.

One of the unusual developments in the membership drive yesterday was the receipt of an application for membership from Robert W. Colburn, a member of the California State Legislature from the Eighteenth District (San Diego). Mr. Colburn had been a resident of San Diego for a number of years, but in future will be a Glendalian. He and his family will reside at 368 West Pioneer drive.

Mrs. P. A. Pollock, 110 South Pacific avenue, secured another member to the Glendale Chamber of Commerce yesterday, tying the record of S. L. Roland, of the Southern California Metropolitan Loan Association, of 113 West Broadway.

Mr. Roland stated this morning that he is not competing for the prize of $25, offered by C. C. Cooper, president of the First National Bank, but that he is securing these new members to the Chamber for the good of Glendale.

Mrs. Pollock said this morning:

"I really haven't had time to do very much work in connection with the drive as yet, but in a day or so I'm going to set to work in earnest. Then you will see me bring in the memberships."

Allen O. Martin, the new chief of police of Glendale, called at the headquarters of the Chamber of Commerce this morning and filed out an application blank. He says he thinks that every "live one" in Glendale should be a member of the Chamber.

ODD FELLOWS INITIATE MANY IN THIRD DEGREE

The third degree work was given to a number of candidates last night at the regular meeting of the Odd Fellows Lodge at their hall in the Central Building, on East Broadway.

This work was put on by the local team. About 50 members of the order were present.

At the meeting of the lodge next Thursday evening, the initiatory degree will be given to a number of candidates for membership. This work, also, will be put on by the Glendale team.

Thirty members of the local Odd Fellows Lodge will go to Van Nuys Monday night, where the encampment degree will be given to a number of the members of the order, several of whom will be from Glendale. This work will be done by the Van Nuys team.

LEAGUE OPENS DOORS

GENEVA, Sept. 16.—Open diplomacy won out in the league of nations assembly meeting today. The assembly adopted Lord Robert Cecil's solution calling for full publicity at meetings of the league council.

The organization of the international court of justice and arbitration was completed today when Dr. Blichmann of Norway, was elected a deputy judge. Dr. Van Karnabeck of Holland, the newly elected president of the assembly called a halt on speeches. He warned the assembly that it was time to get down to work and quit talking.

"Otherwise the world will think that the league of nations is no more than a debating society," said the president.

830 ORDERED EXECUTED BY BOLSHEVIKS

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 16.—The extraordinary commission of the Russian Soviet has ordered 830 persons executed at Kief for plotting against the Bolshevik Government, according to a report from Moscow printed by the newspaper Politiken today. The report is not officially confirmed. Kief is the capital of Ukrainia.

WOMEN JUDGES ARE NAMED FOR WORK AT THE FAIR

Mrs. Harry Huston, in charge of women's activities of the Los Angeles County Fair, which is to be held in San Fernando September 19-24, has announced the judges for the various departments in which women are competing in the amateur class.

For judges in the art division, she has named J. Bond Francisco, Edgar Edstrum, and Dana Bartlett of the Otis Art Institute.

In other departments there will be but one judge, as follows: culinary, Miss Norma Kunkle for fruits; Mrs. J. W. Coffman, baked foods; needlework, Miss Etta P. Flagg; plants and flowers, Clayton F. Palmer. Mrs. Huston further announced that there will be two educational lectures a day, during the week of the Fair, under auspices of the women's department, one each day on child welfare, and the other covering a divehsity of subjects in which women are keenly interested.

Blouse designs for the late fall that embody the full, long sleeve idea in modified form, suggest fabric combinations and the use of slashes or bands of self material.

BAVARIA CHARGED WITH TREASON TO GERMANY

By FRANK E. MASON
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, Sept. 16.—The flat charge that Bavaria is giving assistance and haven to men who are plotting the downfall of the republican government, was made by Chancellor Wirth today in an address to the Reichstag supervisory committee. It was the most bitter tirade against the Bavarians that has yet come from a member of the federal government.

The Chancellor charged Bavarian authorities hindered the pursuit of the assassins of Dr. Mathias Erzberger, leader of the Centrum party. Chancellor Wirth supported his remarks with a report compiled by Herr Weismann, commissioner of public safety. The Commissioner alleged that Bavaria had furnished asyulm for Colonel Bauer, Major Pabst, Captain Ehrhardt and other officers who figured in the von app revolution in Berlin in March, 1920.

The Bavarians, according to Commissioner Weismann, refused to arrest the men who were implicated in the von Kapp plot against the Berlin Government.

Herr Weismann even alleged that Captain Ehrhardt and Police Commissioner Poehner of Munich had become great friends and that the captain paid almost daily visits to the police official.

"The Munich police did what they could to prevent the capture of the men who killed Dr. Erzberger," said Chancellor Wirth. "But the Bavarians should take warning. We shall not tolerate much further delay in abrogating martial law."

AIRPLANE CHIEF RESIGNS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The discord and dissension which for months has been smouldering in the United States Army Air Service, resulted today in the resignation of Major General Charles T. Mencher as chief of Air Service.

General Menoher has sent his resignation to the secretary of war. It has not yet been acted upon but it is understood it will be accepted and the Army Air Service will have a new head within the next few weeks.

WORK ON FAIR BOOTH

Work was started this morning on the booth that will represent the Glendale Chamber of Commerce at the San Fernando Valley fair next week. The work is being done by the Bentley & Schoeneman Lumber Company. Downing & Fox, nursery men of South Brand boulevard are to take care of the decorating of the booth while the Kenny Music Company has offered to donate a Columbia Graphonola for the musical feature.

ILLINOIS GOVERNOR PLEADS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 16.—Counsel for Governor Len Small today filed a petition in the San Gamon county circuit court asking for a change of venue to another county in which the trial of the governor on charges of conspiracy and embezzlement of state interest money shall be held.

PROHIBITION PROBE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Disgusted over the spread of liquor lawlessness and utter failure of the federal dry machine to cope with it, Prohibition Commissioner Haynes today ordered a probe of all state enforcement organizations in an effort to fix blame for present demoralization in enforcement matters.

SACRAMENTAL WINE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The internal revenue bureau today ordered a more liberal allowance of sacramental wines for use by religious organizations in their rites.

SPECIAL CAR SERVICE FOR "PERSIAN GARDEN"

For the convenience of the many Glendalians who have tickets for the Persian Garden performance to be given in the bowl at Verdugo Woodlands Saturday night under the auspieces of the Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, arrangements have been made with the Glendale-Montrose line to run cars every 15 minutes beginning at 7 o'clock.

It is to be staged in what is known as the old Verdugo Park where the tractor show took place and is therefore very accessible. The performance will begin at 8 p. m.

No such artistic production has been given in Southern California in a long time, and never in Glendale. A lovely setting is afforded by the forest surrounding the bowl which is a glen of wild beauty.

Artists who are famous will have leading roles and the chorus and orchestral work will be far ahead of the ordinary operatic production.

It will in a way be a dedication of this out-of-door theatre where it is expected many other artistic productions will take place but none likely to surpass in artistic finish or spectacular beauty the "Persian Garden," dramatization of Omar Khayyam's poem, which has never before been produced west of New York.

MARTIN IS NEW CHIEF OF POLICE

people of San Fernando their moral and financial support in the project by attending the fair. He also requested that the city of Glendale donate the fair committee $2,500 to be used in putting the fair across. This donation, said Mr. Prince, would be regarded as a loan, if the fair was a success and would be repaid in full. If the fair should not be a financial success only a portion of the money would be repaid.

After considerable discussion the matter was referred to Secretary Rhoades of the chamber of commerce with the assurance that while the city council could not donate the city's money for such a purpose, if Secretary Rhoades organized a drive to raise the funds, the council members as individuals wolud assist in any way possible.

Support Fair

A resolution was introduced and carried placing the council on record as being in favor of the San Fernando fair, and promised the moral support and attendance.

A committee from the transportation committee of Glendale appeared before the council and asked that in the matter of improving the Sycamore Canyon boulevard that nothing be done to make it impossible or impracticable to grant a right of way over this road to the Pacific Electric railway.

A petition for the improvement of Chestnut street was presented to the city council and ordered filed with the city engineer for checking and a report.

Object to Sidewalks

A protest on the improvement of Orange Grove avenue was presented to the council and ordered filed. According to the protest the property owners do not object to the paving of the street but they do object to the putting in of sidewalks.

Another protest against the Fox-Woodsum Lumber Company being allowed to use the ground on the north side of California avenue for the erection of lumber sheds, was presented and referred to the city manager for investigation and a written report at the next meeting of the council.

A communication from John Everson applying for the position of city attorney was ordered filed.

Invited to Openings

A communication from P. A. Pollock inviting the councilmen to attend the formal opening of his new garage was read, accepted and filed.

Another invitation to a similar affair at the Ford agency last night was read, accepted and filed.

Lester L. Patch and Anson W. Pitcher both applied for permission to conduct bus lines in the city. The permits were granted.

A request for permission to sell milk in this city, approved by the milk inspector, was granted.

Homer J. Rich made application for a permit to establish and operate a steam laundry in this city which was, on the recommendation of Mr. Marek, referred to the building inspector for an investigation and report.

Clyde L. Dirland was granted permission to start a service gasoline station at the corner of Verdugo road and Glendale avenue.

Three applications to do street work by private contract were granted. Mr. Whitaker requested that his license money paid for a plumbing license that was revoked last week, be returned to him. This request was granted.

The claim of the Roy L. Kent Company for $176 for damages to house by opening of Orange street, was rejected.

The city engineer reported on the frontage represented by the petition for the opening and widening of Ivy and Hawthorne streets, from Pacific avenue to San Fernando road.

Bids Are Accepted

It was decided to accept the bids of the Grinnell Sales Company and the Chaplin Valve Company to furnish pipe and valves for the sewer work in municipal improvement district No. 4.

Permission was granted to the city manager to advertise for bids on a caterpillar tractor and the city printing for the coming year.

No action was taken on the petition asking that the name of Sixth street be changed to Glenwood road. It was decided to wait for the residents of Vine avenue, who also want to have the name of their street changed, and incorporate both changes in one ordinance.

Ordinances Adopted

The following ordinances were adopted:

An ordinance changing the name of certain portions of Sycamore Canyon road.

An ordinance dedicating a parcel of land owned by the city for a public street known as Raleigh street.

An amendment to sections 3 and 5 of ordinance No. 433 regulating the keeping of dog kennels in the city.

An ordinance to regulate the carrying on of businesses and providing license fees and for their collection.

An ordinance regulating street work by private contract.

An ordinance regulating the planting of trees in public streets.

An ordinance regulating the construction and maintaining of public and private garages and filling stations.

U. S. WILL DISBAND AERIAL FOREST PATROL

(By International News Service.)

The Secretary of War, because of lack of funds, has announced that the Aerial Forest Patrol will be discontinued at the close of the present season.

The Aerial Forest Patrol was established in 1919. In 1920 twenty-nine planes were lent by the Army Air Service to the Forestry Service for duty in the Pacific Coast States.

These few planes, the operating of which was regarded by Air Service officers as part of the necessary expense of keeping units in training, in two and a half months in 1920 saved from destruction by fire standing timber valued in excess of $35,000,000, or considerably more than the entire appropriation that year for the air defenses of the United States.

The Work of the Aerial Forest Patrol has been one of the most distinctively constructive achievements growing out of the post-war adaptation of aircraft to peace-time uses according to the Aircraft Year Book for 1921. In 1920 the twenty-nine planes in the service patrolled more than six and one-quarter million square miles of national and private forests on the Pacific Coast. They discovered and accurately located between 900 and 1,000 fires, and through this remarkable performance attracted the attention of conservationists in all parts of the country and led the Canadian Government and timber corporations to establish the foundation for similar services.

The Department of Agriculture, which has no specific appropriation covering the aerial patrol, reports that the entire forest area in the United States covers 463,000,000 acres, and that this region is being burned over at the rate of 10,000,000 acres yearly. Reforestation requires a minimum of twenty years.

There are a number of simple serge models that derive interest either from novelty belts or embroidery, the latter used only in narrow bands arcund the edges, almost like fancy braid, in such colors as rose with china blue on navy, the embroidery done in yarn.

An attractive black cashmereine cape with little collar of ermine, held by a bow tie, introduces novel fabric embroidery in flower design mingled with narrow braid handwork, on a wide, applied fold which gives the cape a double effect.

DOUBLE STARS ARE AT THE PALACE

Wallace Reid is at his best in "The Hell Diggers,' a red-blooded action picture, which is on view at the Palace Grand theater today. It is a virile story of life in the California gold dredging fields, and every scene is filled with strong dramatic action. Lois Wilson plays opposite the star.

The kiddies get a big thrill in the fourth episode of the Animal Serial and the Tony Sarg's comic portrayal of the stone age is hard to beat for its unique photography.

Henri Monnet at the Wulitzer adds a pleasing touch of variety to the splendid bill playing "Mimi" and other favorites.

A sphinx-gray cape of silk duvetyne with dyed fitch collar has rosettes made of fabric petals with silk hand-whipped edges, from the centers of which streamers fall at either side of the back.

Crystal beadings are greatly used for entire robes.

Football Practice At High School Started

Plans are already under way at the Glendale High School to make this year a banner one in football. Since the opening of school Monday, about 40 boys have turned out for football practice. So far nothing other than light practice has been attempted but, according to Coach Hayhurst, hard work and scrimmage practice will start next week.

An attempt is being made at present to secure a practice game, to be played Tuesday, September 27, with a team from the University of California, Southern Branch. Another game has been arranged for the next Friday, to be played with the Santa Barbara High School team at Santa Barbara.

The present outlook is that Glendale will be represented on the gridiron season by a fairly heavy team Three men who wre members of last year's team will play this season. They are Terzo, Dutcher and Jackson. Terzo will in all probability play his regular position at quarterback while Dutcher and Jackson may be shifted from guard positions to tackle. Dutcher and Jackson are both heavy men, weighing in the neighborhood of 170 pounds. Other men that are sizing up as likely candidates for the first team are Eiffer and Fraley, new men, weighing about 175 pounds. The line will average about 150 pounds. Possible candidates for line positions are Bartow, Clousa, De Armand, Gibson, and Richardson. Possible men in the backfield are Truitt, Stofft, McCourt, Green, Goss, Wilson and Manus. These men average about 150 pounds. Linemen for the season are tentatively named as Brown, Begg and Stockbridge.

All equipment that will be used by the high school athletic teams this year is to be supplied by the hardware firm of Neal & Gregg. The profit that is made on the sale of this equipment will be turned over to the athletic fund of the school.

While no practice for the basketball team has been called there is every indication that this year will see an excellent team in the field. There are three men who played last year that have signified their intention of playing this year, as well as a considerable amount of new material that has the apearance of class.

In addition to the regular football and basketball teams Coach Hayhurst intends forming a light football team.

Night gymnasium classes are being arranged for at the high school by Coach Hayhurst, and considerable enthusiasm is being shown among the men who are employed during the day. Last night 23 members of Glendale companies of the California National Guard signed up for football practice on Monday and Wednesday nights. These men have also signed for a basketball team.

There are 26 signed up at present for the night gymnasium classes and it is the intention of Coach Hayhurst to form volley ball and indoor baseball teams from among the various organizations and business institutions of Glendale, and arrange for a series of games to be played on the high school athletic grounds. These teams will be open to men employed during the day only.

THE NEWPORTS TO HONOR J. W. FOLEY AT VERDUGO

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Newport of 610 South Serrano street, Los Angeles, will entertain on Saturday evening, September 17, with a dinner in honor of James W. Foley. The guest list will include Mr. and Mrs. William Walker, Miss Dorothy Walker, Robert Jarvis, Mrs. Myra Nye and Mrs. Loughborough and son.

The party will then motor out to Verdugo Woodlands to witness the performance of "In a Persian Garden." Mrs. Newport is greatly interested in this production as it will benefit the Tuesday Afternoon Club house fund, and has in every way aided towards its success.

Mr. Newport is the owner of Verdugo Woodlands.

ENTRANTS 'TUNE UP' FOR NATIONAL GOLF MATCH

(By International News Service.)

COUNTRY CLUB, ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 16.—The air hereabouts is teeming with whizzing golf balls today as entrants are "tuning up" for the opening tomorrow of the first qualifying round for the National Amateur Golf Championship, play in which a brilliant complement of American and foreign sportsmen will be contenders.

Play in the championship will be for the Havemeyer cup and four medals. All play will be under the rules of the United States Golf Association. The winner shall bear the title of champion amateur golfer for the fiscal year and the Havemeyer cup shall be held for that year by the club from which the winner shall have entered.

The individual prizes are a gold medal to the winner, a silver medal to the runner-up, and bronze medals to the semi-finalists. The player making the lowest score in the qualifying round Monday, September 19, in a 36-hole play, shall receive a special prize.

The schedule of play, as officially posted here today, follows:

Saturday—Preliminary qualifying round; eighteen holes to be played by each contestant; the best sixty-four scores and ties to continue Monday in a thirty-six hole medal round. Saturday scores will not count in the Monday qualification round.

Monday—Thirty-six holes to be played by each contender; the thirty-two players having the best scores for the two medal play rounds (thirty-six holes) to qualify for the championship.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday—Thirty-six hole match play rounds.

Friday—Semi-final thirty-six hole match play rounds.

Saturday—Thirty-six hole final round.

In the event of a tie or ties for the thirty-second place Monday, contestants tied shall continue to play until one of them has gained a lead by strokes at any hole. In the event of a halved match the players shall continue until one of them shall have won a hole in order to determine the winner.

All score cards in the medal play round will be kept in strict accordance with "Rule 5, Special Rules for Stroke Competitions." Contestants failing to comply with this rule will be disqualified.

BILLETS ARRANGED FOR "VETS" REUNION

Los Angeles hotels will be crowded to capacity during the reunion of the Ninety-First Division, to be held there September 24 and 25. In order that veterans of the Wild-West Division may be assured of a place to sleep, Frank X. Goulet, who may be addressed in care of Los Angeles Post, American Legion, is making reservations at special rates, for those who notify him of their intention to attend the gathering.

MOTION PICTURE AT HUDSON CO. WINS

More than 250 people turned out to see the wonderful motion picture that was exhibited at the new quarters of the Glendale Hudson Mootr Company, 230 North Brand boulevard, last night. A curtain was stretched across one end of the brand new garage and there were seats for all those who were fortunate enough to see these free pictures.

For the event, the showroom of the establishment was abloom with many flowers, potted plants, palms and other greenery. Excellent taste was shown in the arranging of these floral decorative features.

In addition to the showing of the motion picture, which depicted one of the most thrilling motor trips that has ever been picturized, the driving of an Essex car down into the Devil's Punch Bowl by two young women, two very valuable prizes were given away. As each guest entered the showrooms, he was given a ticket, a duplicate of which had been retained by the management. Following the showing of the picture, the duplicates were put in a box and a little chap from Glendale drew out two. The lucky holders of the mates to these were Mr. Hurin, 410 West Park avenue, Glendale, and F. T. Emmons of Pasadena. Mr. Hurin received a valuable auto robe, while Mr. Emmons was given an automobile lunch kit.

Five beautiful cars were on display in the showrooms. These consisted of one Hudson speedster and a Hudson touring car, and three Essex touring cars.

This wonderful motion picture, which is filled with thrills from one end to the other, will be shown again tonight, and also tomorrow night. So well was the picture received last night that additional accommodations for visitors are being made tonight. Nothing is being left undone that would assist those attending in having a good time. A number of valuable surprises in the way of prizes are on the program for tonight.

The members of the firm do not want to tell just what these will be, but they say that the things to be given away would be very acceptable to any motor car owner.

The latchstring of the Glendale Hudson Motor Company will be out again tonight to the people of Glendale, and the members of this new firm will be on the job to extend the visitors the "glad hand."

Ford Agency House Warmed By Friends

The housewarming of the new Ford Agency, 115-125 West Colorado street, was held last night and proved a great success.

Jesse E. Smith and employes acted as hosts and hostesses and the people of Glendale to the number of about 700, were the guests.

A very fine band concert by the Elks-Legion band, Director Crawford in charge, was enjoyed from 8 until 10 o'clock. From 10 until midnight, dancing was enjoyed, and the floor was crowded to capacity. During the evening delicious punch and wafers were served.

One of the interesting features of the evening was the giving of prizes. Each one was requested to register, and upon so doing was given a number. Later in the evening six numbers were drawn for the six prizes to be given. These prizes were awarded as follows: First, a Willard threaded rubber battery, donated by the E. W. Cizek Auto Electric Co., awarded to C. L. Border; second, 30x3½-inch cord tire awarded to V. F. Smith; third, 30x3½-inch fabric tire, awarded to T. G. McDougall; fourth, a rear signal for car, awarded to Charles A. Rudel; fifth, spotlight, awarded Mrs. Mullikin, and sixth, a 3½-inch inner tube, awarded Pearl Livingston.

During the evening, inspections were made of the new agency and everyone thought it a very finely equipped place. There were more guests present than had been expected and for that reason there were not enough chairs, but that didn't seem to make much difference, for everyone had a good time and enjoyed dancing to the "jazzy" strains of the Elks-Legion band.

DINNER PARTIES PRECEDE "PERSIAN GARDEN" PLAY

Quite a list of dinner functions preceding the performance of "In a Persian Garden" have been reported as having been arranged by matrons of Glendale and Los Angeles. Among hostesses mentioned are Mrs. Queen Boardman, Mrs. J. H. Cline, Mrs. David Sheehan, Mrs. J. B. Francisco and Mrs. Fred Stephenson.

The composers, Charles Wakefield Cadman and Gertrude Ross, will attend, as will many other celebrities of the musical world

Gathered About Town

BY O. L. KILBORN

A three-car train on the P. E. had just stopped at San Fernando Road, as nearly every one does, for that is a very popular getting-on and getting-off place. The wig-wag signal was swinging and its gong sounding. There was a line of autos on either side, some of the drivers waiting calmly, others "jockeying" their cars, ready for a quick start when the crossing should be cleared and still others sprinting across ahead of the car and taking a chance, to save a few seconds of time. A passenger on one of the cars, observing all this, moralized as follows: "Why wouldn't it be better to have the car or train stop squarely in the road, thus blocking all attempts to cut in ahead by reckless motorists? This would not result in blocking the street-crossings for the motorman and conductors are too anxious to make time to delay unnecessarily at any stopping-point."

The five chain grocery store branches now located in Glendale do not seem to have any bad effect on the little "family grocerys" dotted here and there about the city, as new ones are starting up frequently. Recent additions to this class of stores are those on West Lexington Drive, South Glendale avenue, South Everett street and San Fernando Road. And as for fruit and refreshment stands, there seems to be several new ones a day.

People who observe the smooth level expanse of Brand boulevard from Colorado to Doran, and the numerous street crossings of the P. E's. double track line on the thoroughfare first named, can hardly realize that six years ago the tracks occupied an unsightly hump, like to that now at Lomita avenue, right at the Harvard, Broadway, Wilson and other crossings, while from Colorado street to Park avenue there was not one place to cross the tracks, which were lined solidly on both sides by curbing. The first crossing in this stretch to be opened was that at Windsor Road, then Ninth street. Maple street followed and then Chestnut. And eight year ago Brand as a highway was closed between Cypress avenue and Los Feliz Road, Central avenue was a dirt road, three to six inches deep in dust in midsummer, and Colorado street, then Sixth, was entirely unpaved.

Another street that probably will soon be extended is Magnolia avenue. It is open now from Brand to Central avenue and from San Fernando Road to the S. P. right of way. It is opened for about half the distance between Central avenue and San Fernando Road but not paved. When extended to the latter street it will pass just south of the school house. It is at the Northwest corner of Central and Magnolia that Harry Hague has built a number of very handsome residences.

ANNUAL BIBLE CONFERENCE

The fifth annual Bible conference of the First Presbyterian Church, will be held here from October 5 to 9, inclusive.

Dr. Cortland Myers, who, until recently, was pastor of the Tremont Temple Baptist Church of Boston, the largest church of that denomination in the world, will be the leading speaker. Among other speakers will be Rev. W. E. Blackstone, Rev. George W. Davis, Rev. Frederick W. Parr and Rev. J. R. Pratt.

The aim of these conferences from year to year has been to secure a more comprehensive appreciation of God's Word and a deepening of the spiritual life of the Church. Much interest has been shown throughout the years in these conferences by the people of Glendale and all the San Fernando Valley, and the conference this year promises to be on the same high plane as those of preceding years.

These studies will afford a special opportunity for Bible students and all others who are interested in the Word of God. There will be no collections and the sessions of the conference will be open to all.

BROWN'S NATAL DAY

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brown of 406 North Maryland avenue last night entertained members of the house party who were with them this summer at Mt. Herman.

It was also a celebration of the birthday of Mr. Brown and proved a very delightful though quite informal social affair, at which dainty refreshments were served by the hostess as the evening neared its close.

The guest list included: Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Brown, brother and sister-in-law of the guest of honor; Miss Gertrude Heideman, Miss Marjorie Yarick, Miss Gladys Levy and Miss Nellie Warner.

School Bond Election For Next Month

The biggest thing transacted at the meeting of the Board of Education last night, when much important business was transacted, was the formal passage of a resolution calling a bond election for the sum of $260,000 for October 11, with three polling places: Cerritos, Central avenue and Intermediate schools.

A committee from the southern section of Glendale consisting of C. D. Gulick, H. M. Gill and Harry Hague appeared before the board to urge that for the relief of school congestion the vacant room in the Magnolia school be opened for pupils in the third and fourth grades who are now going to Cerritos avenue.

The board had to consider the proposition in connection with the whole situation. The fourth and fifth grades at Cerritos are overcrowded but not the third, and the decision made was based on giving relief to the greatest numbr of pupils in both Cerritos and Pacific avenue schools. On that ground they voted not to open the room at Magnolia because not enough pupils could be accommodated there, it being difficult to persuade pupils living near Cerritos or Pacific to change to the Magnolia school. The action was taken after studying the list of addresses of pupils in both schools.

Following were the relief measures adopted: First, to floor and furnish the semi-basement room at Cerritos which is only three feet below the ground level and which will accommodate about 25 children. By some shifting this can be made to relieve the fourth and fifth grades, which now have 56 pupils each. That means another teacher for Cerritos who will be one of three additional teachers elected later.

The next big matter was authorization, by the board, of the purchase of three portable bungalows from the Pacific Ready-cut Company, of Los Angeles, the lowest bidders whose proposition was $4,031 for three or $1,370 for one. The rejected bid of the Garden Company was $1,565 for one.

The bids covered erection, on cement foundations, complying with the building ordinances of Glendale. The bungalows will be distributed as follows: Two at Pacific avenue and one at Columbus.

Distribution of Bungalows

At the Pacific street school last year Mrs. Badour was employed to relieve first and second grade teachers by taking classes out, in turn, to recite in the open court or in the little library of the building. One of the bungalows will therefore furnish her with a class room. The other, in which a new teacher will be placed, will relieve congestion in other grades.

At Columbus avenue, where all the grades are crowded, two more rooms must be provided. This will be accomplished by removing the equipment from the sewing room and transferring it to the unfurnished basement room at Central avenue, where the girls of both Central and Columbus will receive their domestic science instruction instead of going to Columbus as they have been doing. The vacated room at Columbus will be furnisher for the use of ungraded pupils, and the large room formerly occupied by these grades will be available for a new teacher. The bungalow assigned to that campus will provide for another teacher.

New Teachers

The three relief teachers elected were: Mrs. Theodora Stogdill of 318 El Fonita, who comes to Glendale from Fresno, and is a graduate of Stanford and of the Tepe Normal; Miss Mabel Cobel, who is also a normal graduate and who has been teaching in the Detroit (Mich.) city schools. She resides at 631 North Howard; Miss Evelyn McManus of Los Angeles, who has been doing Americanization work in the Bonita Union High School.

The board also authorized the purchase of equipment for these new rooms.

Fire Protection at Cerritos

Because of complaint on the part of residents of South Glendale that Cerritos avenue school has not adequate fire protection either in the matter of water pressure or hydrants, Superintendent White was instucted to address a letter to the city council requesting an investigation of the matter.

Superintendent White was also instructed to continue the contract with the group of Mexicans who are now removing certain eucalyptus trees of the Cerritos avenue campus.

South Glendale Schools Need Fire Protection

At an enthusiastic meeting of the South Glendale Improvement Club was held in the hall over the public library on South Brand boulevard last night.

Vice-President S. L. Brenkman had charge of the meeting. There was a good attendance and everyone present was filled to overflowing with the "boost for South Glendale" spirit.

The principal subject of the evening's discussion was the grammar school situation in South Glendale. At this time, the schools in the southern part of the city are crowded to the extreme. There are not enough seats to go around, and if there were, there is no place to put them. This condition exists in both the Cerritos and Magnolia avenue schools.

It has been suggested that the basements of the two school buildings be utilized for the accommodaions of the pupils, but the parents of the children attending the schools have registered a decided protest against the basements being used for this purpose, and suggested thta portable buildings be purchased and located on th eschool grounds. A committee consisting of Messrs. S. L. Brrenkman, W. E. Anderson and L. C. Denman was appointed to confer with the Glendale school board.

Fire protection for the Cerritos avenue school was also discussed. A committee consisting of Myron Griswold and Mrs. Eustace B. Moore had been appointed last week to meet with the City Council to secure better fire protection. This committee reported that some of the members of the Council promised to see if one of the large water mains could not be run to the school grounds from San Fernando road. In this way it is believed the situation could be relieved.

The next meeting of this association will be held at the same place, on Thursday evening of next week.

WOMENS' AFFAIR S

KELLER SCHOOL OPENING

Mrs. Paul Brattain, better known under her professional name as Pearl Keller, head of the Pearl Keller School of Dramatic Art and Dancing, says there will be no change in the policy of her school for the coming year, which she will direct in person.

Miss Dorothy Dutton, who has been her pupil for the past six years, will be her assistant teacher, Miss Grace Dewar will continue to act as secretary of the school, and Miss Gertrude Champlain and Mrs. J. A. Wright as musicians.

The studio on North Brand has been renovated and freshened for the seasons work and the formal opening for registration will take place tomorrow, Saturday, September 17, from 2 to 4 p. m., with a short demonstration program by pupils.

Baby, intermediate and advanced classes will be formed, and the Morgan technique will be taught, as last year.

Miss Keller's school is too well-known to old residents of Glendale to need an introduction. New residents will do well to attend the opening and see for themselves what artistic work is being done.

QUILTING BEE AT ST. MARK'S

An excellent and enthusiastic meeting of St. Mark's Guild took place at the church yesterday, at which considerable fine quilting was done, after the business session, at which plans for the coming year were discussed. Mrs. Holbrook, the new president, conducted the meeting.

The ladies are finding plenty of work for their needles. They have been engaged to quilt by Glendale stores and private parties.

Club Women's Plans

Mrs. Raymond E. Chase of this city, chairman of the drama section of the District Federation of Women's Clubs, was a guest yesterday at an all-day session and luncheon at the home of Mrs. Trewhella of Montebello of the executive board of the district federation, and gives some interesting data concerning matters there discussed.

A decision was reached to hold the presidents' council Tuesday, October 18, at 11 a. m., at the Eagle Rock Woman's clubhouse, when all presidents of clubs in the district will be guests.

The board decided to hold a reception in November, for the state president, Mrs. Fitzgerald, who will be in Southern California at that time.

Announcement was made that district press meetings will be held in the Broadway Lounge Room the first Saturday of each month from 10 to 12. Mrs. Chase hopes the Tuesday Afternoon Club representative will be there.

"The program of the drama section of our club and plans and aspirations for our new club house will appear in the District News of October 1, and probably in other publications," she says.

A movement to persuade municipalities to provide attendants at comfort stations was one of the subjects discussed.

There was also discussion of plans for the state convention, which is to be held in Los Angeles early in the year, when big things are in prospect. Announcement was made that the district convention would be held at Santa Monica, March 27-29. At that time the drama, art, music and literary sections, assisted by various clubs throughout the district, hope to produce a beautiful big pageant entitled "Citizenship."

The special speaker at the luncheon was Mrs. Emma J. Reid, of the Long Beach Ebell, chairman of the department of solar magnetics, who gave an interesting talk on "The New Age," which may possibly be secured for the Tuesday Club later in the year.

SUCCESSFUL STREET DANCE

The street dance that was given last night on Broadway just west of Brand boulevard by the Kenny Music company was a complete success. For this occasion the wonderful Magnovox, for which this establishment is sole agent in Glendale, was used. The work done by the Magnavox was such as to create a very favorable impression on all those who participated in the dancing as well as those who looked on.

More than 40 couples enjoyed the dancing on the cornmeal and other substances which turned the street into a very acceptable dancing floor.

Mr. Kenny says he is very well pleased with the way the people of Glendale turned out to this affair and he is also very pleased with the impression made by the Magnavox.

LADIES' AID MEETS

There was an excellent attendance at the all-day meeting of the Ladies-Aid Society of the Central Christian Church yesterday, the ladies dividing their activities between quilting and the manufacture of the communion wine for the coming year.

Since the beginning of the year this organization has earned and turned over to the treasurer of the building fund, $500. Its members make aprons, quilts, comforters, children's dresses, and other things for which patrons are willing to pay, and they are a busy lot of women.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH TO HOLD PICNIC

The First Methodist Church will hold its annual picnic tomorrow afternoon at Griffith Park. Everyone will meet at the church at 2:30 and there will be machines to drive them over. All will take a picnic lunch and eat it together. There will be games and races for the young people and old as well.

All members of the Sunday School and Church and their friends, are cordially invited to attend the picnic.

PACIFIC P.-T. A. MEETS

The first regular meeting of the year of the Pacific avenue school was held Thursday afternoon with a splendid crowd in attendance.

Mrs. Mae Rosenberg as president opened the meeting with greetings to the members and a welcome to the visitors from other schools, after which all business on hand was attended to. One important matter of the session was the motion made and seconded that the association purchase a mimeograph for the use of the entire school. This has been a fond dream come true and the machine is expected to be installed before next meeting.

Miss Stone Wins

The "mother count" reward has proven to be a canary and cage and this was won by Miss Stone's sixth grade for the month of September. Announcement was made of the reception to the teachers of Glendale to be given October 10, also of the district conference in Los Angeles October 16

Mrs. P. O. Lucas as program chairman then introduced Mrs. John Robert White who extended greetings and told of the enthusiasm at the district board meeting which she attended and of the work outlined for the coming year.

Miss Brenaman, teacher of music for the Glendale schools, then rendered two vocal numbers: "From the Land of Sky Blue Waters" by Cadman, and "By the Waters of Minnetonka" by Thurlow Lieurance. These were both Indian love songs. She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Sharp of the Intermediate school.

Mr. Richardson D. White, superintendent of schools, then made very clear to thost present the lamentable fact of the overcrowded school rooms in Glendale this year. In speaking of the increased enrollment over last year he announced that unless the bond election was carried October 11 that half doy sessions would necessarily become a reality. More rooms and more grounds are badly needed and he made the statement that while there had be an increase of 1196 pupils over two years ago, only four new rooms have been built to accommodate these children. He congratulated the association on its attendance of 78 ladies and those present will surely give him and Glendale children their hearty cooperation October 11 to see that Glendale is better equipped along the line of school room.

Mrs. Rosenberg announced that during the month of October the Pacific avenue P.-T. A. will give a "father's night."

The meeting then adjourned to the court where tea and cakes were served by the hospitality committee.

YOUNG ENGINEERS ADVISED

P. H. Callahan, 366 West Elk avenue, says that the Los Angeles chapter of the American Association of Engineers has recently created an advisory board, the duties of which are to give free advice to young men aspiring to engineering courses in colleges. The board ascertains from questioning if the young man is adapted to such a course, and, if so, to what branch—civil, mechanical, electrical, etc. Although this advisory board was created only about ten days ago, Mr. Callahan says that already several young men have taken advantage of its cheerfully offered service. Its headquarters are 625 Metropolitan building, Los Angeles.

SAWTELLE LEAVES CITY

Sawtelle is no longer a part of the City of Los Angeles. The Supreme Court yesterday refused to uphold the annexation election, held in 1917. It decided that the voters of Sawtelle were not sufficiently informed as to the proportion of the bond indebtedness of Los Angeles, to be assumed by Sawtelle. The lower courts had upheld the validity of the election.

NEW CONFECTIONERY STORE

R. M. Richards and H. Clinton, both residents of Glendale, will open a new confectionery store and ice cream parlor under the name of "Puss 'n Boots." at 211½ South Brand boulevard about October first. They will make their own candies and will serve light lunches.

We find a black cashmere duvetyne suit inclined toward a lowered waistline, with four monkey fur-edged folds on the skirt, harmonizing with the monkey fur collar.

In general, richer and more elaborate fabrics are used in contrast to the plain crepe evening gowns that have had such a vogue.

Thor Electric Ironer

1—It's automaitc—the motor does all the work.

2—It has the "One-Finger Control," which opens and closes the ironing shoe.

3—It will do the average family ironing in about one-fifth the time it takes to do it by hand—and do it BETTER.

4—Its two-speed rolls means faster ironing and uniform pressure.

5—Its large swivel casters make it easy to move into any out-of-the-way corner when not in use.

6—The Thor Ironer does flat work beautifully—but with the "open-end" roll its usefulness is increased manyfold. With it you may iron soft collars, cuffs and neckbands, ruffles and flounces. You can readily see how this feature of Thor construction gives you practically 100 per cent ironing efficiency.

GLENDALE (LOS ANGELES POSTOFFICE), CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1921

NEW POLICE CHIEF IS AN EXPERIENCED DETECTIVE

Allen O. Martin, of 1790 Walworth avenue, Pasadena, was appointed Chief of Police of the City of Glendale, at the regular meeting of the City Council last night. Mr. Martin will replace J. P. Lampert, who for the past three years has done good work as head of the Glendale police department. At the present time, Mr. Martin is conducting a detective agency in Pasadena. He is married and he and his wife will at once move to Glendale to live.

In his application for the position of Chief of Police, Mr. Martin gave a brief history of his life. It ran as follows:

"I started to work for the Western Union Telegraph company of Chicago as a messenger boy, and by degrees was appointed Chief Clerk, which position I resigned and went to work as chief bookkeeper for the Postal Telegraph company, where I remained for six years, when I resigned to go to work for Nelson, Morris & Co., packers of Chicago. While with this firm, I was promoted from clerk to bookeeper and to credit man.

"I was then appointed special investigator for the United States secret service and was later appointed special agent for the Department of Justice, with headquarters in Chicago. I then went to work for Weil's agency in Chicago, as an investigator and this position I left to be the first chief house detective of the Hotel LaSalle, Chicago. After several months there I returned to the Weil agency, and remained there until I was appointed special agent of the Department of Commerce and Labor, Census Bureau, Washington, D. C., where I was employed for nearly three years, when the appropriation ran out and I returned to Chicago, and was again employed by Weil's agency as chief investigator, until Mr. Weil closed out his business, about eight years ago. Shortly after this I opened an agency of my own, which I continued until coming here about a year ago.

"During my work, I became acquainted with numerous police and government officials throughout the United States and Canada, and worked with them. I thoroughly understand police duties. I was a member of the Second Regiment of the Illinois National Guards for four years, and have an honorable discharge.

"During the late war I did considerable work for the government without remuneration, and was also a member of the Chicago police force during the Chicago race riots without pay. I have never secured any appointment through any activities in politics.

"I was appointed Chief of Police of Pasadena on April 19, 1921, and resigned on May 11. The City Manager had a friend picked out for the position before I was appointed by the retiring Board of City Commissioners. While Chief of Police of Pasadena, I enforced the law and I am proud to say I did my duty."

Mr. Martin comes to Glendale with a record of achievements which might well be envied by anyone. While special agent for the Department of Justice, he was connected with cases in which he received special commendation from Attorney Generals Bonaparte and Wickersham, such as the Beef Trust, Standard Oil, Standard Oil Appeal, Oklahoma Land Fraud Case, and Chinese Smuggling case. While he was special agent for the department of Commerce and Labor, Bureau of Census, he had charge of two special agents and 130 clerks, and was with the Bureau nearly three years in Washington City. When investigator for Weil's agency in Chicago, he was recognized as the best investigator in the country on arson cases and was the detective who secured the evidence and the first confession and conviction in the Arson Trust case.

Mr. Martin is a man who can handle men. As the First Chief House detective of Hotel LaSalle, Chicago, he demonstrated his ability along this line by having under his direction 55 men. He was employed by seventy-eight insurance companies which were interested in the big fire loss of the Ford Manufacturing company, Vandalia, Ill., Mr. Martin was the detective who discovered the automobile graveyard in the abandoned quarry at Summit, Ill., where divers brought up autos from 90 feet of water. He has worked on numerous automobile, burglary, mail pouch and bank cases, not known to the public, but which at the same time were cases that required knowledge to solve.

As A. O. Martin & Company, Chicago, he had among his clients every well known insurance company, except the life companies. Chubb & Son, of New York, the largest insurance underwriter in the United States, were clients of his during the seven years he was in business for himself, and during that time the $250,000 Studebaker bond mystery, the $240,000 mail pouch theft at Whiting, Indiana, also postal robberies at Reston, Manitoba and Marryfiels, Saskatechawan, also diamond loss at Bangkok, Siam, and Chicago Radium loss.

Mr. Martin brings with him a whole bundle of the finest kind of recommendations. In recommending Mr. Martin, S. A. Lewinsohn, vice-president of the State Security company of Chicago, says:

"I consider Mr. Martin competent to handle any matters that he himself considers he can look after. I have so much confidence in him that I will guarantee his integrity to the extent of $100,000 over my own signature."

That is hitting it off pretty strong. But Mr. Lewisohn is not the only person who thinks well of Glendale's new Chief of Police. Edward Freund, lawyer, of Minneapolis, Minn., says:

"It gives me great pleasure to state that A. O. Martin enjoys the highest respect in his line of work by reason of his great skill, also honesty, which he proved on a number of occasions where bribes were offered to him by the other side, and his untiring efforts and energy in obtaining the best results possible. He obtained evidence in cases which were given up by other detective agencies, which led successfully to the conviction of the wrong-doers. According to my experience, there is no case too hard or complicated which Mr. Martin could not handle successfully."

Dr. C. L. Watts, Chief Special Agent, Department of Commerce and Labor, Washington, writes concerning Mr. Martin:

"Allen O. Martin was under my supervision for ten months in 1910 in Chicago. He soon demonstrated that he was the best qualified special agent among the fifty or more with me and through my recommendation and the kindness of Mr. Durand, he was given a 50 per cent increase in salary.

"I became well acquainted with Mr. Martin and found him to be a gentleman of excellent character and habits. I always assigned the most difficult of cases to him. He was always willing and delivered the goods—seemed to like the work. I have no hesitancy in recommending Mr. Martin and feel confident that he will make good in any position which he may accept."

Harry A. Parkin, Chicago, says of Mr. Martin:

"If you are looking for a first class man of excellent ability who has the brains and experience necessary to supervise and manage a staff of investigators, I know of no one who could better fill the position than Mr. Martin."

Among other recommendations offered by Mr. Martin, were those of R. J. Folonie, for Bates, Hicks & Folonie, attorneys, Chicago; J. P. Buenemann, for the Western Adjustor & Inspector company, Chicago; Thomas P. Hallinon, for Critchell, Miller, Whitney and Barbour, Chicago; E. Dana Durand, Department of Commerce and Labor, Washington, D. C.; Julian W. Jacobs, insurance adjuster, Chicago; A. H. Barchers, for A. I. F. Bullard, insurance adjusters, Chicago; A. H. Brown, attorney, Chicago; W. C. Cox, for E. A. Platt & Co., Researchers, Chicago; Chubb & Son, Federal Fire Insurance company, New York; C. F. Earl for the Bryant Produce company, Los Angeles; Edwir W. Sims, lawyer, formerly United States District Attorney, Chicago; F. M. Rice, for the Underwriters Service Corporation; Charles E. Green for Green, Beverly & Rice, attorneys, Chicago; L. L. Sanders for the National Fire Insurance company, Hartford; C. D. Green for C. D. Green & company, Chicago, and many others.

The City Trustees have given much study to the question of appointing Mr. Martin to the position of Chief of Police of Glendale and from the remarkable recommendations that Mr. Martin brings with him it would seem as though their selection of him is thoroughly justified.

A Woman's Hate May Fan West Va. Flames

NOTE—This is the third and last of a series of articles on the mining warfare in West Virginia. In two preceding stories the writer, who made several months' study of conditions on the spot, outlined the economic causes and effects of the bitter warfare between the miners and operators. The emotional background of that "Armageddon" between capital and labor is described below.

By SIEGFRIED D. WEYER
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent
(Copyright, 1921, by International News Service).

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—One thing that may upset the temporary quiet here is a woman's revenge," telegraphs Mildred Morris, the intrepid International News Service staff correspondent, who, after harrowing experiences on the Logan battlefront, is now reporting the second "Trigger trial" in the Mingo county court house at Williamson, West Virginia.

Two women of Mingo brood revenge. One is Mrs. Sid Hatfield, twice made a widow by gun play. The other is Mrs. Ed Chambers, widow of the youngest of the 15 men who, with Sid Hatfield, were acquitted last March after an 8-weeks' trial on the charge of having murdered Detective Albert Felts. Both were present when, early last month, C. E. Lively, the "crack" sleuth of the Baldwin-Felts Detective Agency, shot and killed Hatfield and Chambers on the steps of the court house at Welch, W. Va. Lively had been a star witness against the defendants in the first "trigger trial."

From the moment that the shrewd-eyed, aquiline-nosed self-confessed union spy had revealed on the witness stand the remarkable dual life he had led for nine years—as a detective for the coal operators and a member in good standing of the United Mine Workers of America—it was, to those who know the Mingo temper, merely a question of who would beat the other fellow to the draw—Lively or Hatfield, Lively or Chambers, Lively or any of the other indicted miners, once they met again.

Hatred and Love Primeval

Hand in hand with hatred in that passion wrought country goes love. And the mountaineers' love is as deep as their hatred. Utterly unaffected—almost primitive in its manifestation—it is the proud, hell-defying, world-contemptuous sort of love that stops at nothing, that knows neither limit nor law nor logic.

Those hill-folk are, for the most part, direct descendants of pioneers that crossed the mountains with their pack-horses and dogs and rifles a hundred and fifty years ago and settled in the Virginia wilds. They are essentially children of nature. Civilization, with its arts and graces and shamefaced restraint, has made little headway among these people. Their emotions are as primitive as their manners. They are a different breed from any people on the face of the obe. And through the make-up of almost all of them runs that strange thread of duality that makes them smile with murder in their hearts and grunt and glare when they are happy.

The loyalty and affection between friends and the passionate ardor between lovers were peculiarly apparent during the trial at Williamson, which, by the way, was, in point of number of defendants, unique in American court annals. Never before had twenty-three men been araigned simultaneously upon a murder charge before the same bar of justice. Wives and sweethearts clung tenderly to the arms of their men in prisoners' row. Women were also plentiful among the spectators. Jeers, hisses, handclaps, shouts of approval punctuated all hearings. The whole trial was surcharged with emotionalism.

On the first day of the great legal drama — January 26 — the whole jammed courtroom escaped by a hair's breadth a tragedy which staggers imagination.

Credit for averting it unquestionably belongs to Tom Felts, head of the Baldwin-Felts Detective Agency. Not until after the hearing was over did it become generally known that practically everyone of the twenty-three accused were sitting on the accusers' benches, armed to the teeth. All had one gun, most of them had two. How many "gats" were bulging in hind pockets among the men in the audience cannot be estimated, but it is safe to say there were several dozen. In a back-room were a half-dozen regular soldiers belonging to Colonel Herman Hall's detachment, then stationed in Williamson, but later withdrawn; each was armed with an automatic. One tiny movement by someone might have led to the "shooting up" of the courtroom.

Massacre Averted

Someone did make such a movement, and it was none other than Sid Hatfield, the young chief of police of Matewan, now dead. Tom Felts was standing down the aisle past the benches on which sat the twenty three miners from Matewan whose prosecution he was financing — the men charged with the murder of his two brothers. Sid Hatfield was sitting at the outer edge of the first row. Waves of hot hatred seemed to sizzle back and forth between these two arch-foes. As Felts came nearer, Hatfield, a slight sneer on his face, suddenly made a jerky movement to his "gat" pocket and ostentatiously switched the position of one of his weapons.

Felts later told the writer that it was the tensest moment of his life.

"If I have ever felt the temptation to shoot, it was then," he said. "Moreover, by the oldest law in the world—the law of self-defense, the law of beating your man to the draw and the drop—I had a perfect right to kill Hatfield right then and there in that courtroom. And there followed a minute when one more move, ever so slight, on Hatfield's part, would have sent him where my brothers are."

Felts promptly told the State's attorneys what had hapened. Captain S. B. Avis, his chief counsel, told Judge Robert D. Bailey, sitting in the case, who then gave the "disarmament order" which resulted in every man and woman thereafter being "frisked" for weapons before entering the courtroom.

The killing of young Chambers by Lively brings to mind the picture of his beautiful young wife, who always sat beside him during the trial, her large, lustrous dark eyes fastened intently upon the witness, the interrogating lawyer, or the judge.

Vituperation and Blows

It was she who nearly caused wholesale bloodshed one afternoon, when, at the end of a hearing, as the crowd filed out of the courthouse, she attacked Isaac Brewer, ex-defendant, who had turned State's witness. Sending her fist to the jaw of the lanky six-footer, famous as one of Mingo's most dreaded two-gun men, she cried:

"You are a dirty dog. You are trying to get my husband and my little brother hanged!"

Only the timely interference by State troopers prevented a mob scene and massacre. Now her husband is dead, shot by another State's star witness, Lively.

All this is an inherent part of the emotional setting in which the recent "March to Mingo" was staged, resulting in bloody fighting and the eventual interference of government troops.

But what was this "March to Mingo?" Was it, as has been hinted, an organized attempt by five or six thousand union miners to force their way through Logan County, the "open shop" coal field whose economic importance has been described in previous articles, and "break down" the virtual state of martial law existing in Mingo?

All the facts brought out thus far tell a different tale. It has been shown that the United Mine Workers' officials were and are against such a move and that two of the union's most influential officials, Keeney and Mooney, brought all their influence and persuasion to bear to stop the "march." Also, events have shown the utter futility of an attempt—organized or unorganized—to force unionism upon the Logan fields.

What seems infinitely more probable is that the concentration of union miners arose from the gathering of individual groups and that it gradually gained strength and impetus from subsequent inflammatory words and actions.

The bitterest blood had been created by the killing of Hatfield and Chambers by a Felts detective in a non-union and Baldwin-Felts stronghold.

Emotion Breeds an Army

"Cold-blooded murder!" was the cry raised by the United Mine Workers of America. The union saw to it that every member learned the details of the shooting. It charged that Hatfield, who, rightly or wrongly, had been lifted to a position of heroic leadership among the union men, had been "framed" and "trapped" and "put out of the way" in time to deprive the second "trigger trial" of this publicly picturesque figure.

As word of all this slowly spread over the mountain sides there developed one of those strange phenomena whose genesis can be traced back to the thoughts, emotions and actions of individuals—thousands of them, independent of each other and living in widely-separated regions—and whose culminating manifestation is the powerful, united, concentric action of a great mass of men.

Individuals met other individuals and found they were headed the same way: "Ah'm goin' down to the Mingo Co'thouse. Ah reckon thar'll be a right smart lively time down there."

Thus groups were formed, and groups met other groups. Presently they grew into a swarm, into an army, for that they are armed—always, and heavily—is an old story by now.

Meanwhile the more radical union organizers, quick to seize the advantage of this migration and this concentric trend of emotion, no doubt made all possible capital out of it. Word was spread that the defendants in the second Matewan gun-battle trial at Williamson would be "railroaded" to the penitentiary or the gallows. Emphasis was laid upon the fact that for the first time men from Mingo were to be tried by a jury drawn from an outside county. That "no jury can be found in Mingo to convict these men" had been an open secret for months. Through the efforts of one of the Felts lawyers, ex-Judge Joseph Sanders, a member of the West Virginia legislature, an old statute had been revived, making possible the drawing of a "strangers' jury."

Meanwhile, the small number of "marching" miners grew, the coal operators and their legion of supporters in Logan, backed up by the well-equipped State constabulary and Don Chafin's private army, prepared to meet the threatened "invasion." What at first probably was the remotest thing from the minds of the "marchers" soon became a definite purpose. There was a clash, then another, then "battle formation," and presently actual battles followed.

And that is part of the story of the "March to Mingo" and of the mining war.

Whose "gat" will write the beginning of the next chapter, and what will be the "finis" of it all?

INTL.

Chemical warfare troops at Blair Mountain, West Virginia, practicing with gas and gas masks, preparing to repulse the attack of miners. It is possible they may yet go into battle.

BROADWAY PARENT-TEACHER MEETING

At the meeting of the Broadway Parent-Teacher Association, held Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Bowlus was appointed president to succeed Mrs. Caroline Wilkinson, who had tendered her resignation because of work which would interfere with her service.

Several room mothers were named, and Mrs. Jackson was made chairman o membership with the understanding that each room mother will endeavor to promote membership for the room assigned to her.

The most important item of business other than the appointment of a new president, was the vote to give a paid entertainment in the auditorium of the school, next Wednesday evening, for the benefit of the Parent-Teacher Association treasury.

MIDDLEWEST FOOTBALL SEASON OPENS TODAY

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—What is expected to be one of the most brilliant and successful football seasons in the middlewest in years was officially launched today when coaches of the "Big Ten" universities summoned their gridiron squads for the initial practce of the year.

Early indications are that the "Big Ten" colleges will present several well balanced, powerful elevens and that the battle for the championship will be hard fought. Ohio State, last year's champions; Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan are the teams most often mentioned as title probabilities, with Minnesota, Chicago and Indiana likely to upset the dope by winning.

Besides the "Big Ten" schools, Notre Dame also began active practice today with 45 candidates reporting to Coach Rockne. Coach Staffs of the "Big Ten" schools remain the same except at Purdue where William "Lone Star" Dietz has succeeded "Butch" Scanlon.

A STOREHOUSE OF TREASURE

I'VE FOUND A VERITABLE STOREHOUSE of treasure for you at NUSSBAUM'S GROCERY AND MEAT MARKET, 244 N. Brand boulevard this week! Yes, indeed, why, for one thing, there's Bacon in the piece, either the half or whole for 32c per pound! For 20c you can buy bacon-strips and for 15c the freshest of bacon-squares! Fresh Picnic Ham in the half or whole is selling for 18c while Leg of Pork is 28c per pound! Leg of Lamb and Lamb Chops are as low as last week—only 25c per pound! And other meats are just as low in proportion! You who took advantage of last Saturday's specials, know how fresh and infinitely "good" are the meats which Mr. Kriske selects! Nussbaums carry only the best and sell at the lowest possible margin! And, tell me, can you imagine a good broom, a regular $1.00 value, for only 75c? Yet that is another of the amazing specials which Mr. Nussbaum offers tomorrow! Every housewife knows that the Daisy Lee Parlor Broom will last longer than any other—but of course there will only be "one to a customer!" Better come early and make sure of yours! There are several of the famous National Biscuit Co.'s products, such as Uneeda Biscuits, Animal Crackers, and Premium Sodas, for only 6c per package! And the same unusual prices on Kellogg's Corn Flakes and Post Toasties, and all of Campbell's Soups and Pork and Beans, that surprised you so last week, still prevail! Ten cents each—why its ever so much lower than the accepted downtown prices! And, oh! my, there are just ever and ever so many more surprises awaiting you there—you really can't imagine them—(even large cans of pink Alaska Salman are only ten cents!)—so you'll really have to see for yourself! Remember Nussbaum's is the store where Courtesy, Friendship and Values go hand in hand!

A CATALOGUE OF MUSIC such as the Ampico offers requires in its formation much more than the casual selection of the pieces to be played. Especially is this true of the compositions of the great classic composers. Mr. Leopold Godowsky, who, from the first, has shown a keen interest in the development of the instrument has been retained to act as Supervising Editor of the Classic and Standard Portions of the Ampico. It is Mr. Godowsky's desire that the lis of works offered should possess th greatest value, both as a means o giving pleasure to the Ampico own ers and to the musical student. An of the great pianists, no one has de voted more of his time and eruditio that he to the educational side o music! Under his direction, the cata logue of Ampico records is becomin a standard list of the composition of the great composers, and when com plete will be a comprehensive collec tion of all the most important an valuable works in the literature o music! At the BARNES-SHUCI MUSIC CO., of 211 North Brand boulevard, the Glendale home of the Ampico in the Knabe Piano, you'll fin a most interesting selection of these Ampico Rolls, and I know if you'l just stop in at their attractive show rooms, they'll be more than glad t demonstrate this marvelous reproducing piano—The Ampico—for you.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers You, Drink Lots of Water

When your kidneys hurt and you back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

THE HOME

WHAT A DIFFERENCE IT MAKES, when the man of the house comes home and finds a nice dinner ready and his wife waiting with her usual smiling greeting! But little does he realize how much time and attention she has spent in preparing this one meal—and remember—this is only one of the three which she probably get daily, and for three hundred and sixt-five days in the year! The good housewife no doubt passes thru all of the rooms several times each day, and if Hubby would only see to it that the floors and walls are kept painted and decorated, he would not only have a much happier family—but it is always a good investment! Protect your floors with Diamond Floor Paint, your walls with Sunscraft Enamel, the Furniture with Kyanize, and the outside of the house with Blue Ribbon House Paint. If you can't take the time to do it, call MOORE AND CHAMPLIN at 304 E. Broadway, as they specialize in Interior Decorating, and Wall Paper, Paints, Varnish, Kalsimine and Brushes and so forth!

WASHER WILSON SAYS—!

SO MANY PEOPLE take the purchase of a vacuum cleaner for granted, but, according to WASHER WILSON of 140 N. Brand boulevard it should really be gone into thoroughly, there are so many things to be considered! Washer Wilson says: "When you're buying a vacuum cleaner, decide first of all on the working principle you desire. Vacuum cleaners are divided into three distinct classes. The straight suction machine which is entirely dependent on suction and possibly a brush that does not revolve. In this class we have the Royal, Apex, Eureka, and Tot Point cleaners. And then there is the friction driven brush machine which has a revolving brush which is driven from the wheels. In this class we have the Ohio, American, etc. Third is the motor driven brush type. The two best machines of this type are the Sweeper Vac and the Hoover. This style machine will do just the same amount of work if pushed slowly as when pushed fast, because your brush is motor driven. People who have used all three types generally concede this to be the best because it does all of the work with the least possible effort on the part of the operator."

They are having a sale on all of these different types of machines at Washer Wilson's, 140 S. Brand boulevard, so you'd better stop in and look them over!

THEY'LL BE OF THE PAST

THE DRY-HAND MOP is being featured in a wonderful demonstration at NEALE AND GREGG'S HARDWARE STORE, 107 N. Brand boulevard on Saturday afternoon and night! Every housewife should be there to see the remarkable demonstration of this entirely new invention! The Dry-Hand Mop has been designed to save the hands when scrubbing—and, really, it's a wonder! There will be no more backaches, no more sore hands—and as for stooping—that is to be a thing of the past in the household that boasts a Dry-Hand Mop! It is absolutely sanitary, and will easily outwear three ordinary mops! And, then, too, it is really about the cheapest, for there are no mechanical parts to catch and break! Veritably, is this Dry-Hand Mop a boon to the housewife—but you should attend the demonstration tomorrow, for there you'll learn all of the "in and outs" of it! And, another thing—has your son bought his "gym" suit, for school, yet? Well, you know, Neale and Gregg carry the regluation boys' gym suits in their new sporting goods department—so send him down there for it!

TO HOME SEEKERS

YOU, WHO ARE HOMELESS, should go to VANDENHOFF of 205 N. Brand boulevard, immediately, for he will be able to find you just the sort of a place you're looking for! Mr. Vandenhoff has some exceptional buys in bungalows and houses, of every size and description—both furnished and unfurnished! His prices and terms are most reasonable, too!

NO EXCUSE

AN INFERIOR GRADE of coffee is positively the worst thing you might drink—but good coffee, properly prepared will give you energy, pep and just "all around" good health! If you drink BOOTH'S SPECIAL BLEND COFFEE, you'll always be in just the best of spirits, for it is absoultely pure! And so it is with tea,—if you would have a tea that is deliciously refreshing and invigorating go down to BOOTH'S at 318 E. Broadway! Mr. Booth blends his own teas and coffees—and indeed they are a credit to him! After having once tried them—you'll never be satisfied with another! It is certainly a joy to have the store so convenient, too, for now there is no excuse for any table being laid sans Booth's tea or coffee!

AN IDEAL COMBINATION

A DELIGHTFUL FRAME of charming design will enhance the beauty of any picture—and there really could not be a more ideal gift than a beautifully tinted enlargement of yourself in a lovely easel frame! At the PHOTO SHOP, 218 E. Broadway, you'll be able to have the picture enlarged and artistically colored and also—framed! Yes, indeed, for Mr. Smith has just made up a large selection of stand and easel frames in many different sizes, and most attractive designs! You can buy them for practically their wholesale value, too! If you've not a photograph that suits you, you can have one taken and enlarged at the Photo Shop, you know!

You know as a mouth bath for teeth, tonsils and throat, and also as a gargle, Ze Pyrol is absolutely the best healing antiseptic you can use!

PLEASURABLE FAMILY LIFE

I DOUBT IF THERE IS ANY ONE thing which has brought so much pleasure into family life as the automobile! For any family to be without a car, now that they have been put so well within the reach of everyone, is really a tragedy! At the CLUB GARAGE, 107 E. Colorado St., you can buy, really quite reasonably, one of the most beautiful cars on the market—yes, the Sheridan! It is a car of which to be proud at any time—for it is beautifully upholstered in genuine leather and modelled along such graceful lines! The Car Complete, someone has called the Sheridan—and truly it is, for hasn't it everything, even to an electric clock on the dash? Call Glendale 53 and Mr. Murphy will be glad to demonstrate the new Sheridan for you!

MONEY, LIQUOR AND RELATIVES RUIN MANY HOMES

By WILLIAM J. HUSKE,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CLEVELAND, Sept. 76.—Money, liquor, relatives. These three are declared by Bradley Hall, Director of the Bureau of Domestic Relations, to be the principal cause of divorces and domestic troubles in Ohio.

"The extravagance of the wife, the shiftlessness of the husband, or the desire of the wife to be free to earn her own money and thus enjoy a better economic status, all tend to loosen the matrimonial bond," he declared.

Hall's duties bring him in direct touch with causes of domestic infelicity, and there are few who can speak with greater authority than he upon the troubles which cause the breaking up of homes and the separation of families.

Liquor, he said, while still in the first three as a moving factor in the breaking of the marriage tie, is not nearly so important as it was before the advent of prohibition.

"While booze of one sort or another is still plentiful," he continued, "its cost is high, and law enforcement makes it more or less difficult for the average man to satisfy whatever desire he may have for alcoholic drinks

Home a Supply Base Now

"The housing shortage, too, contributes to the unrest. The newlyweds live with their parents to save expenses. Petty quarrels between the young folks, which would be forgotten with the dawn of a new day were they living alone, are taken up and prolonged by the older people until they become festering sores that end too often in the divorce court. Reconciliations become difficult, because the older people display too lively an interest in the outcome."

Too great emphasis is placed by the modern young people upon material things, Hall believes. Home nowadays is too often only a place to eat and sleep—a base, as it were, from which forays were made upon the world at large for the things that people now regard as important. "In other words," he said, "the home is only a means to an end—not the end itself, and this makes for unrest when young wills clash and the income dwindles. There is not that unity of interest that used to be so marked a feature of our home life, with the husband earning the money and the wife safeguarding its outgo."

Hall also declared that changes wrought in war's aftermath contributed much to clogging the divorce courts. Many young fellows, returning from overseas, he said, had contracted the wanderlust.

"And what's the remedy for all this?" the interviewer asked.

"More emphasis upon spiritual values; less upon material well-being," he answered. "America is suffering more from the breaking up of family life than from industrial depression or any other cause. The disease from which we suffer is within us. The cure, also, can be found there."

DR. BROWN LOCATES

Dr. Laura Brown, who is at present residing at Sixth and Grand View is entertaining Miss Martha Warren of Hghland Park, who stopped to see the doctor on her way home from a visit in Sunland.

The doctor reports that she has just purchased a residence at 607 eneva street, which will be her permanent home after the first of the month. She is very happy in the prospect, believing that it will be a better location for a professional woman.

PICKPOCKET ARMED WITH BEAN-POLE IS LATEST

(By International News Service)

ELKINS, W. Va., Sept., 16.—Experienced pickpockets, or "dips," as they are known to the underworld, generally depend upon the dexterity of their fingers to ply their trade, but some fellow here has introduced a novelty in the manner in which coins may be extracted from the pockets. He uses a long bean-pole with two conveniently placed nails in one end.

Arnold White of Job, W. Va., was relieved of $80 in cash and a gold watch valued at $40 at Roe Dove's annex. It happened after White went to bed and to sleep. The pickpocket took a ladder, climbed to the second-story window, thrust in his pole and extracted the cash and the watch from White's trouser's pockets.

CLEANING PLANT PURCHASED

J. S. Walker, former owner of the Glendale Furniture Store, and C. H. Lewis, lately with the Peerless Laundry, have purchased the plant of the Brand Cleaners, now located in their new quarters at 217 South Brand boulevard. The late owner of the business was J. J. Claxton, who, with his wife, will remain with the concern.

HOME COMFORTS ARE ENJOYED BY LEES

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lee of 345 North Belmont street, who have returned from a series of automobile tours which have kept them camping all summer, report that it seems good to be home and sleep in a regular bed, although they enjoyed their outings immensely.

Their itinerary covered 5500 miles and took in Portland, Seattle, Spokane, Yellowstone Park, Wawona and Coast points. They met thousands of tourists, many of them from Eastern states, who all declared they were coming to California to live as soon as they could arrange their affairs to do so.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR HISTORY

The Sons of the American Revolution in Los Angeles are offering to the public the result of years of compilation of Revolutionary War records in such a way that many Southern Californians can learn of their ancestors who fought in that war. The library of the society, Sons of the American Revolution, is located at 424 South Broadway, and is open each morning except Sundays from 10 to 12 o'clock.

RB ROCK BOTTOM STORES RB
"We split the Nickels" QUALITY GROCERIES

Eighty Money-Saving Stores in Southern California

THE policy of the Rock Bottom Stores of selling groceries on close margins, depending upon volume sales and quick turnover for their profit, has won us the confidence of the thrifty, value-demanding and intelligent buying public of Southern California in the eighty communities in which we are now operating, and has enabled us to become the largest and fastest-growing chain stores organization in the West.

In fact, our truthful advertising, fair business methods, courteous treatment of all, and uniformly rock bottom prices have led hundreds of Southern Californians to look upon Rock Bottom as a guide to fair prices and merchandise dealing—a gold standard of grocery values.

We handle nothing but first-class merchandise and, in addition to all the best known and nationally advertised products, we manufacture and pack many items under our own R-B and Rock Bottom brands. Nothing but the choice, fancy canned fruits, vegetables, etc., are packed under the R-B label. All our standard pack foodstuffs are put out under the Rock Bottom brand, and are fully guaranteed in every respect.

These R-B and Rock Bottom products are rapidly winning favor among our customers. They come to you direct from the manufacturer or packer, thus eliminating the middlemen's profits, and are offered at a considerable saving under other brands of equal quality.

PLUMBING AND GENERAL CONTRACTING

Young Heiress and School Boy Wonder Elope

Friends of Mrs. Bertha Samuels Sinclair are wondering whether she will win the forgiveness of her father, or whether Colonel Joseph Samuels will keep his threat to disinherit her. The millionaire made this threat when the bride indicated her intention of being married to James Sinclair, former Brown University athlete. The couple eloped a few days ago, being married at Mystic, Conn. It was late in the night when they reached Mystic. It was raining, and the engine in their motor had stalled. The circumstaces were not at all romatic, though the heiress found a touch of romance in the fact that if her father held to his word she would have to be content with Sinclair's salary in lieu of her large allowance.

Swims 143 Miles From Albany to New York

Forging along on a steady, even, trudgeon-crawl stroke, Miss Milla Gade, twenty-two-year-old Danish woman swimming champion, arrived at the Battery, New York City, after completing a swim of 143 miles from Albany. She was in the water just sixty-three hours and thirty-five minutes, which set a new record for the distance. The feat took Miss Gade six days. Miss Gade was accompanied by a rowboat, and after every fourteen hours in the water she was fished out and given a meal, rubbed down with alcohol and cocoanut oil and then dropped overboard again. The photograph shows Miss Gade getting out of the water on her arrival in New York.

Found--A Use for Bald Heads

When one's head is perfectly bald, except for a nice little fringe around the back and ears, one may qualify for the Order of Double Faces. An ingenious Dutchman is the founder of the order. He asked a bald friend to incline his head on a table so that the bald section faced front. With a piece of charcoal he sketched a nose, mouth, eyes and eyebrows, with the result shown above. Who says some men are not two-faced?

Sightless Harvard Man Going to China

Robert Pruitt was stricken blind on his tenth birthday while at play with a number of Chinese schoolboys in the American Mission Compound at Hwanghsien, Shantung Province, where he was born. A blow on the head produced paralysis of the optic nerve. That was thirteen years ago. Today, as a bachelor of arts, of Harvard, where he was graduated recently, Mr. Pruitt is returning to China with a plan to establish a school for the blind in connection with the Chinese College at Hwanghsien. His parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Pruitt, formerly of Youngstown, Ohio, have been stationed in Hwanghsien for many years.

Girl Will Sell Self To Get Education

The yearning of this attractive twenty-year-old Chicago girl for an education has caused her to offer herself "for sale" in marriage for $3,000. The offer comes as a climax to a futile struggle to raise money in other ways. She tried clerking, bookkeeping, salesmanship and nursing. After careful calculations of the expenses of a course through college, Miss Peterson "priced" herself at $3,000. She prefers a tall husband and states she will marry at once if necessary, but would rather wait until she had graduated from college.

BOSTON MEN SOLD LIKE SLAVES

Fifty jobless men were recently placed on the auction block on Boston Commons. Stripped to the waist, after the custom of the old slave auctions, they declared their willingness to work by standing before a crowd of thousands, offering their services to the highest bidder. The good points of the men, including many war veterans, unable to find employment, were pointed out by Urban Ledoux, philanthropic worker, who conducted the sale. Ledoux in issuing noices to employers about the "slave-market," requested them to be on hand to "buy honest-to-God Americans" anxious to work for their keep. The photo shows Ledoux auctioning one of the "slaves."

Child Traders Feature Moscow Street Life

BY C. C. SECRUE
Special Correspondent of International News Service

MOSCOW, Sept. 15.—Via London, Sept. 16.—Moscow, to the traveler from the outside world, seems to be a city of shoeblacks and child traders. During a walk in the streets one can count thonsands of children attempting to sell their cheap little wares, usually consisting of a few pounds or sunflower seed, a handful of apples or a few sheets of grimy note paper and envelopes.

The shoeblacks work cheaply. A shine that might cost ten or fifteen cents in New York, costs one thousand roubles here, but the 1000 roubles in United States is even less than ten cents. Before the war it would have been $500.

The famous church of the Redeemer was crowded with worshipers this morning. Virtually all were men.

The churches have been hard hit along with everything else by the famine and hardships. There was a placard hanging in front of one of the churches, reading: "This church needs wine for sacramental purposes and pure oil for christening; thread for repairing vestments and petroleum for washing the floor; paper and string for parcels, and food for the congregation."

Despite the shortage of money, or rather the cheapness of money (for the Russians now deal in thousands of roubles where they formerly dealt in penny coins) I noticed that most of the people contributed liberally to the numerous beggars that line the principal streets.

The Smolinski market is an animated scene belying the reports of the outside world that Russia is starving and is a country of the dead. But one should not be misled. The scene is far different outside of the city.

It is pathetic to witness the scenes. Many members of the old nobility—counts and princes and grand dukes under the reign of the czar, now ply a pitiable trade in small articles. One may pass a former grand duke, whose income before the war ran into millions of roubles a year, selling imitation jewels.

The workmen, taking a lesson from the principle of Bolshevism, wrok in leisurely fashion with much fraternalizing and conversation. It is very rare to see anyone in a hurry.

ONION TIME

This is onion planting time for the home gardener. Sow seeds two rows to each ridge. Sow quite thickly about ten seeds to the inch, and transplant when the young onions are the diameter of a pencil. Set the plants about two inches apart in the row. In transplanting it is well to cut the tops off, leaving about two or three inches of green top to project above the ground. Onions should grow rapidly in rich, well-drained soil. They do not "like" adobe soil or sandy soil with low fertility. Most onions sets on the market give very poor results. As a rule, they have remained too long in the ground before being harvested as sets. However, onion sets, properly grown, and matured in not more than 70 or 80 days, will produce large onions quickly without "throwing" seed stalks. One might plant 100 feet of rows of seed and 5 feet of dry sets and see which gives best results.

"Crystal Wax" is a fine flavored, large, soft, white onion. It is a poor keeper and shipper, but unexcelled for the home garden. "Riverside Sweet Spanish" is very popular. For general purposes the "Australian Brown," "Yellow Globe Danvers" "Southport White Globe" are the three leaders.—Charles L. Schufeldt, in Orchard and Farm.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

CHILDREN INJURED BY "HIGH-BROW STUFF"

GREELEY, Colo,, Sept. 15.—"High brow stuff" for children of tender age, in the form of advanced literature, ethereal poetry, the solving of intricate mathematical problems and spelling of uncommon words is detrimental to the child, according to Dr. Edward L. Thorndike, of Columbia University.

In a lecture at the Colorado State Teachers' College here, Dr. Thorndike criticized educational reformers who require children in the seventh and eighth grades to pore over literature and poetry, spell words that they will likely never use and figure out mathematical lessons that will never help them in the ordinary course of life.

"These educational reformers," said the lecturer, "seem concerned with life in a better world than this will be in this generation, or for many generations to come. The time has not yet arrived when children of a super-race are entering our public schools."

Dr. Thorndyke read poetry from a series of readers which he said were in use in practically all elementary schools, and, declaring that while it was very beautiful asked: "Of what earthly good is it to children?"

He questioned its benefit in improving the ability of children to read and expressed the opinion that ethereal poetry would inspire a tendency to avoid the reading of Bryant and Wordsworth.
